

TALAVERA

2026

Our Talavera collection is traditional Mexican pottery, based on a centuries-old Spanish style. This line is characterized by a white base glaze decorated in either blue or a mix of vibrant colors. It is imported from Puebla, Mexico. A region known for its quality clay and history of creating Talavera pottery, that began in the 16th century.

Introducing Tierra Luz (pronounced tee-AIR-ah LOOS)

Tierra Luz “Earth & Light” - a poetic nod to the natural clay base (earth) and the vibrant glazes (light). It evokes the visual contrast that defines the collection. It represents the union of grounded natural materials and vibrant, expressive color of Spain.

Developed by the PHG Design Team, this exclusive collection honors the layered history of Spanish and Mexican ceramics, blending matte clay textures with radiant glaze details. From subtle surface depth to bold graphics, each piece in the Tierra Luz collection evokes the feeling of sunlit landscapes, artful living, and timeless craftsmanship. This is more than pottery - it's light captured in clay.

Introducing New Chrysan Talavera

Where design meets legacy

Our newest Talavera collection blends rustic soul with refined simplicity, rooted in centuries-old tradition and shaped by the hands of master artisans. Our Talavera pottery is more than décor, it's a statement of authenticity and quiet luxury.

Handmade from natural terracotta, with subtle white brushwork that honors traditional folk art, it's equally at home in a sun-drenched garden or a curated interior. Offered in elegant, timeless forms that complement both modern and heritage-inspired spaces.
